

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1905. ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

COMPENSATION.

I'm 'kep' in' when I'm 'tardy,'
And I'm 'kep' in' when I'm 'late,'
I'm 'kep' in' for 'position'—
That means not sittin' straight.
I'm 'kep' in' on my joggerty,
My readin' an' my writin',
An' I'm 'kep' in' some for laughin',
But I'm 'kep' in' most for fightin'.
I'm 'kep' in' when my marbles
Comes rattlin' from my pockets,
An' sometimes when my maloes
Gets mixed up with my rockets.

The truth is 'at I'm 'kep' in'
For most everything I do!
But one jolly thing about it
Is, the teacher's 'kep' in,' too!

—Leslie's Monthly.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 32, and let us have it.

The meeting at the Baptist Church will continue all this week. Preaching tonight at 7 o'clock.

Just received, a most beautiful line of Side and Back Combs, jeweled, solid gold mountings and tortoise shell; silver mounting Amber Combs. We have combs suitable for all ages, the largest and handsomest line ever shown in Maysville. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

County Attorney Alvin S. Kendall of Flemingsburg and Miss Lela Walton, daughter of Thomas H. Walton and wife of Hillsboro, were quietly married Monday evening at the home of the officiating Minister, Elder W. S. Irvin. They later drove to this city and left over the C. and O. on their bridal tour.

James Sweet of Pinckville informed THE LEDGER that on Monday night he was dispossessed—in plain English robbed—of $40 in a Market street saloon. The proper place for Mr. Sweet to have laid in a complaint was at Police headquarters and not a newspaper office. If a crime such as he claims was perpetrated, the Chief of Police is supposed to take the matter in hand and ferret out the guilty ones—at least it is his duty to do so and what he is paid for.

The C. and O. Freight Office will be closed tomorrow and there will be no local freight trains.

The remains of J. W. Bouliware of Chicago were taken through this city a day or so ago to his former home at Flemingsburg for interment.

AVOID THE PENALTY!

Pay your state and county taxes before Friday, December 1st, or the 6% penalty will be added. JAMES MACKAY, Deputy Sheriff.

LAST NIGHT'S RAIN

Neighboring Streams at the Highest Mark Known For Years

Information from the Murphysville neighborhood this morning says the Northfork in that vicinity is out of its banks and higher than ever known before.

Houses and fields along the banks of the stream are inundated and considerable damage entailed. Limestone creek was spread all over the bottom this morning and running like a mill-tail, emptying great volumes of water and drift into the Ohio river.

The rain was very heavy, causing such a sudden rise in the side streams that it is not unlikely much damage has been done.

THANKSGIVING TOMORROW

The Usual Observance of the Happy Day in This City

In accordance with the usual custom no LEDGER issued tomorrow, Thanksgiving.

All the Banks will be closed, and no business will be transacted at the Internal Revenue office.

At the Postoffice, there will be one delivery and one collection by the city carriers at 7 a. m. The general delivery window will be open from 8 to 11 a. m., while the Money Order and Registry Departments will be closed the entire day. The rural mail carriers make no delivery in the county.

Tomorrow the Postoffice will be moved from Third and Market streets to the new Government Building in East Third street, opening up for business at the usual hours Friday at the new location.

ABOUT GOOD HOSIERY.

There is good hosiery and bad hosiery, and there are unwise folks who buy the bad sort simply because it costs less. You notice we don't say, because it is cheap, for nothing is really cheap unless it gives satisfactory wear.

Now we are dealers in good hosiery—call it the higher priced kinds if you wish—and we have no interest in where you buy the other sort. But we have a deep interest in acquainting you with the kind we sell. We don't want you to spend a cent here unless you wish to; all we ask is a comparison between our line of Twenty-five Cent Hosiery and that offered in other stores. The comparison will be more eloquent than hours of talk or pages of description.

ACCORDING to some so-called political authorities this country is too prosperous, and they want to curtail that prosperity by a return to Free-trade.

NEW YORK state has authorized an expenditure of $50,000,000 for good roads; and that's pretty nearly as much as Maysville has spent on her canals.

I'm real glad that Kentucky has a law positively prohibiting the purchase of quail killed in this state. Just think of the big dollars the Editors will save for their seashore vacations next summer.

JUDGE HARGIS still remains on the Democratic State Central Committee, and Judge CANTRILL is drawing his second year's salary as a member of the Court of Appeals, although he has never served a single day.

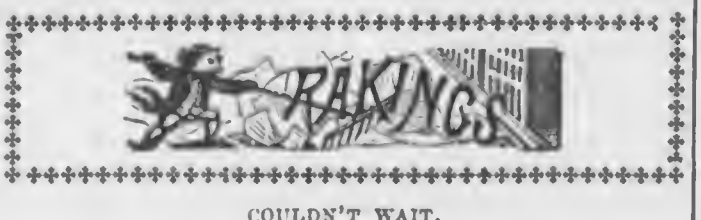

THE formal announcement of the entry of Hon. W. B. HALDEMAN, Editor of The Louisville Times, into the race for the seat in the United States Senate now held by Hon. J. C. S. BLACKBURN has been made. The announcement is in the form of a letter addressed to the Democratic members of the Legislature from the Fifth Congressional District in response to their request that he become a candidate. Colonel HALDEMAN declares that he has entered the race to win.

THE way of the transgressor is a hard road to travel. United States Senator J. RALPH BURTON of Kansas has just been sentenced to two years imprisonment and to pay a fine of $60,000 for accepting a fee as Attorney for a corporation in a case before the Postoffice Department.

If a farmer discovers that he is not properly paid for his labor in raising a crop of tobacco, why is it thought necessary to get all his neighbors to join him in an agreement not to raise tobacco next year? Isn't he a free man? Can't he plant his land in corn, or sow it in wheat,—or what's the matter with growing a crop of white beans for a change? If a merchant finds out that he isn't making a fair living selling shoes, he doesn't ask all his fellow-merchants to quit selling shoes; he simply takes down his shoe sign and tries some other business.

In response to the suggestion that he will soon be announced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky, the Hon. HENRY WATTERSON says—

"The Courier-Journal wishes to state by authority and absolutely and for all time that HENRY WATTERSON would not accept a nomination for Governor of Kentucky, or any other office, even in the event that it were unanimously tendered him and was equivalent to an election. If he had ever desired an office, he would have sought it thirty years ago, when an official career possessed some meaning and objective point, and was open to him. As a matter of fact, office and officialism, in all their forms, have always been odious to him. He hopes and expects to die, as he has lived, a journalist, and nothing but a journalist, with whatever that implies of honorable aspiration, and personal and intellectual freedom."

"Let's stay down town and whoop it up tonight."
"Wait 'till Thanksgiving. This is no holiday or special occasion."
"No; but I've just thought of a brand new excuse to hand my wife."

Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, pallor, muddy complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days.

OLD VIRGINIA CHEROOTS

Package of 3 for 5 Cents

(A cheroot is a cigar made without the head)

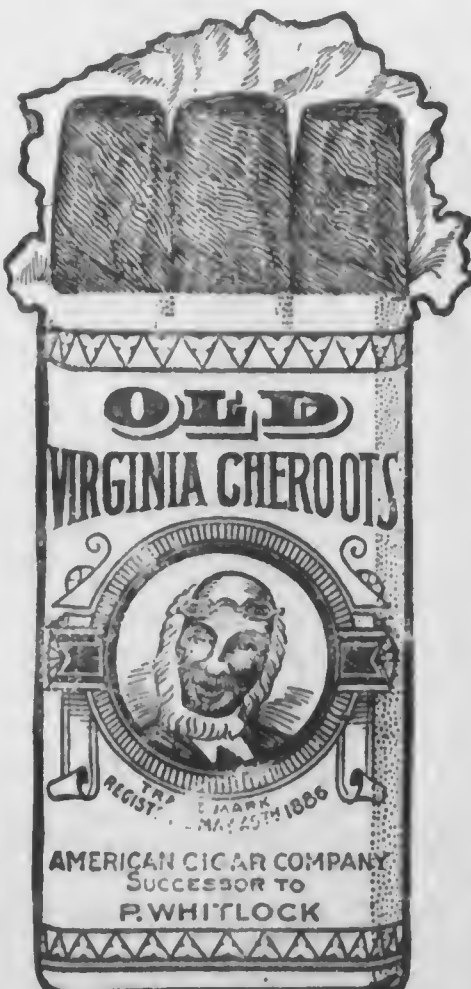

A good part of the cost of a cigar goes into the workmanship.

The "bunching" of the tobacco for the filler takes a little time. The rolling of the filler in the one piece of leaf which is called the "binder," takes a little more time. The cutting and rolling of the outside leaf or "wrapper" takes a little more.

But it is the finishing-operation of forming the "head" that takes most of the time, most of the skill, and costs most of the money.

And yet it's nothing in the world but waste,—for the first thing you do is to clip off that "head" that you have paid your good money for, and throw it away.

If the dealer clipped off the heads of three good five-cent cigars and handed them all three to you for 5 cents, you would call it a bargain;—and that's exactly the kind of trade you make when you pay 5 cents for 3 Old Virginia Cheroots.

A cheroot is only a cigar with its head cut off—and when you buy three Old Virginia Cheroots for 5 cents you pay the right price for three good smokes, and nothing else.

The filler is made from the short leaves and selected clippings of five choice grades of domestic tobacco—blended to give just the combination of agreeable strength and mild fragrance required to make a good smoke.

Not only a bargain in price, but good. Not only good, but clean. Made by modern processes in the biggest and cleanest cigar factory in the world.

A million sold every day—you can get them at any cigar counter in the country.

Sold wherever they sell tobacco

Friends of the participants are enjoying the election wager made between Mr. J. M. McHugh, with Drightman Bros. at Hillsboro—best known in Maysville as Jack McHugh—and Mr. C. W. Roler, a merchant at Taylorsville, O. Their agreement was that if Pattison was elected Governor of Ohio Mr. Roler was to send Mr. McHugh one rooster in a coop and was to receive double pay for it. On the other hand if Herrick was elected the rooster was to be sent the same way, but Roler was to prepay all charges and receive nothing for the fowl. The bet was paid a few days ago, and in remitting for his rooster Mr. McHugh suggested that the proceeds be applied to a charitable institution to help fallen humanity.

SPLENDID SUCCESS

Elks Minstrels Draw Banner House to The Washington

Despite the downpour and its accompanying discomforts, the Washington was well filled last evening, the occasion being the third minstrel performance given by Maysville Lodge No. 704, B. P. O. E.

The handsome "setting" was maintained throughout, colors of the Order predominating, and with the dress suits of halliards and choristers, a pretty picture was presented.

The End Men, Messrs. T. M. and C. D. Russell, A. M. January, W. C. Watkins, J. Allen Dodson and Gordon Sulser, were alone in "burnt cork," rendering their parts well, the sextette near the close, "The Man in the Moon Was Wise," being especially good.

The soloists were Messrs. Burling, Clark, Daly, Squires, Hance and Chunn, and several voices were far better than those of many advertised "professionals."

Colonel Thomas D. Slattery was Interlocutor, and the chorus was reinforced by Messrs. Matthews, Devine, Roberts, Helser, Davis, Lalley, Hauke, Cline, McCarthy, Hamilton, Smith and Murray.

Mr. Frank Fogarty, the accomplished "coach" of the boys, did a clever monologue turn, which was encored again and again.

Altogether, it was an entertainment which reflected added credit on the Elks, as it certainly pleased the large audience.

From Culican, Mexico, it is reported that because a woman entered the Jesus Maria y Anexas Mines, several hundred miners went on strike and refused to return to work until the parish Priest went into the mines and sprinkled all shafts and tunnels with consecrated water. It is an old superstition among Mexican miners that if a woman enters a mine a catastrophe will follow.

The greatest blizzard since 1872 is now raging in the Northwest, with Superior, Wis., as a center.

COULDN'T HIT A BARN!

That Was 'Squire Dreesel's Opinion of His Marksmanship

The other day 'Squire Fred Dreesel was a spectator watching the boys test their skill as marksmen in the Shooting Gallery adjoining Clooney's jewelry store in Second street.

It being generally understood that the 'Squire had seen service in the German Army, it naturally followed that he was a crack shot in consequence of his Army experience.

"Take a shot, 'Squire," said an enthusiast.

"No," said the retiring county official, "I shot my wad November 7th, and judging by the score I made on that occasion, I couldn't hit the side of a house today."

Possibly there was more truth than poetry in the 'Squire's admission.

USEFUL FACTS

About Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Troubles Given to the People of Mayville by our Druggist, John C. Pecor.

"In conducting a large drug business we naturally meet a great many people at this season of the year who suffer from coughs, colds and bronchial troubles.

"As these troubles are easily controlled if the right means is taken we want to say to the people of Mayville that we guarantee our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, will cure hanging on colds, stubborn coughs, bronchial and lung troubles, quicker than any preparation we have ever sold, because it is the most perfect preparation of cod liver oil ever compounded. It contains no oil or grease to clog the system and upset the stomach, yet it does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal elements actually taken from fresh cods' livers in a highly concentrated form and is therefore the best cod liver preparation obtainable. Vinol is not a patent medicine; everything in it is named on the back label of the bottle and you know what you are taking, so without reservation we endorse and guarantee Vinol to strengthen every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended—to cure coughs, colds, bronchial troubles, increase the appetite, build up the run down, tired and debilitated, and create strength and renewed vitality for the aged.

"If Vinol fails to do what we say we will refund every dollar paid for it. You know us and know we will do as we agree."

JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

The eleven river states agitating the question of locking and damming the Ohio river pay 70% of the Federal taxes. The productiveness of this valley region cannot be exaggerated. Men of far-sighted business capacity see in the Ohio Valley the future workshop of the world. Those who have the prosperity of this city at heart will seize every chance that offers to build up, not only the interests of Mayville, but the interests of the county, district and this great Ohio Valley. A great city can never be built up by the petty local competitions of a country town.

The Most Famous Turkey of Them All

How Rhode Island Produces the "Bird of Jove" That is Known to Epicures of Two Continents

There is a vast army of good-livers in this country who labor under the delusion that at some Thanksgiving or other they have eaten of a real Rhode Island turkey. As a matter of fact, that famous bird is following in the path of the English bastard and threatens to become as extinct as the dodo.

In all Rhode Island there are probably not more than 3,000 birds of the old, genuine stock raised, and the little state consumes about 60,000 turkeys a year, drawing on Vermont largely for its supply. The ordinary Rhode Islander, unless he lives in the turkey-raising district, or has a friend who does, seldom tastes a Rhode Island turkey. What few are raised are raised for export, principally to the New York market, where they have been engaged in advance at high prices. Westerly, lying just on the Connecticut border, is the principal shipping point, and the Rhode Island turkeys sent from there are gathered on both sides of the border line.

Let no one who desires a "Rhode Island turkey" for his Thanksgiving dinner, however, be discouraged. Placards are easy to make and any especially fine bird, no matter what may be his state of origin, who comes into the hands of a first-class poultry dealer may at once become a naturalized Rhode Islander for market purposes. The name "Rhode Island turkey" is becoming a grade of bird rather than a turkey raised in Rhode Island of the old stock. An official of the Rhode Island State Agricultural College not long ago made a report in which he stated that in the turkey-raising districts of the state he found that the birds did not average more than twenty-five to a farm. Over the Connecticut border they are sold to run up often as high as 100 to a farm.

For five years the Agricultural College has been experimenting with a view to preventing the extermination of the Rhode Island turkey. Wild turkeys have been imported from Virginia and other sections with a view of producing, by crossing with the Rhode Island breed, a turkey which can withstand the "black-head," the disease which has worked such havoc with the Rhode Island bird and is working it today. This black-head is to the Rhode Island turkey what appendicitis is to people of fashion.

The Rhode Island turkey was the great bird of the Narragansett Indians, and singularly enough, they have followed the Narragansett geographically in their declination and decay, even as they now threaten to follow them in their utter extinction as a pure and peculiar race.

Once the turkey flourished all over the state, as did the empire of the Narragansett, but especially in "South County," known to the geographers as Washington county—and on the island of Rhode Island. After King Philip's War it is not believed that a man of pure Narragansett blood was left alive. The only one of the subsidiary tribes which remained intact was that of the Niantics, and singularly enough it is in the country occupied by the Niantics—the last remnant of the empire of Canonicus and Minutimom, now dwindled themselves to a handful of half-breeds—that the Rhode Island turkey is making his last fight for existence.

The true Rhode Island turkey is a descendant of the aboriginal bird found in the forest of Rhode Island by the early settlers. It is a tame descendant of a wild species and differs from all the breeds found in other parts of the country. The Rhode Island breed more resembles the wild turkey found in Mexico by Cortes than any other, but is of a finer grain and more delicious flavor.

The Rhode Island turkey did not spring suddenly into fame, but grew into it gradually. Even in colonial days the reputation of the bird began to creep along the seaboard, and now it has extended over a continent and is even known of epicure across the seas.

But the breed of Rhode Island turkeys seems to be doomed, and he who would taste of the famous bird must hasten, or it will be too late. If the Agricultural College succeeds by crossing in producing a breed of turkeys which will be immune to the black-head, there will still be turkeys in Rhode Island, but no more Rhode Island turkeys.

Slowly, the famous bird climbs the heights of Esacobag, Shmunkanuc, Brightman and Pottery Hills, and like the Narragansett Indian who has preceded him into the realm of extinct creatures, "reads his doom in the setting sun." The genuine Rhode Island turkey is destined to become only a cherished tradition, and unborn Presidents shall bewail his absence from their Thanksgiving feasts.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless it is cured out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

• We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

DONE FOR GOOD.
No Reason For Any Maysville Sufferer To Fear The Return Of It.
How often the pain returns to the aching back when you think you are well rid of it. No fear of such a return after using Doan's Kidney Pills. They make bad backs well and weak backs strong and keep them so. The testimony of Maysville people proves this claim a fact. You can readily ratify such fact by the following:
John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:
"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of backache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciates the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."
